6. Competition Format

The Diving Competition will be held from Saturday August 23 to Wednesday August 27 at Nanjing Olympic Sports Center Natatorium. The competition consists of individual events and mixed events.

6.1 Individual Events

Each of the four individual diving events will consist of preliminaries and finals. Diving order in the preliminaries will be determined by computerized random selection. The 12 divers with the highest preliminaries scores will compete in the finals. The diving order in the finals will be the reverse order of the preliminaries ranking.

The number of dives and restrictions on degree of difficulty (DD) are as follows:

Events	Boys	Girls
3m Springboard Preliminaries	10 Dives: 5 with 9.5 DD limit from 5 groups + 5 without DD limit from 5 groups	9 Dives: 5 with 9.5 DD limit from 5 groups + 4 without DD limit from 4 groups
10m Platform Preliminaries	9 Dives: 4 with 7.6 DD limit from 4 groups + 5 without DD limit from 5 groups (Must cover 6 groups overall)	8 Dives: 4 with 7.6 DD limit from 4 groups + 4 without DD limit from 4 groups (Must cover 5 groups overall)
Finals	5 dives without DD limit from 5 groups	4 dives without DD limit from 4 groups

The final score of the preliminaries is the sum of all the dives performed in the phase. The scores for the preliminaries dives with DD limit are carried forward to the finals. The final score of the finals is the sum of the carried points and all of the dives performed in the finals.

6.2 Mixed Event (3m springboard and 10m platform combined)

The purpose of this event is to involve as many federations as possible and include teams with individuals from different federations. The MIXED DIVING TEAM EVENT shall be open to all Divers qualified for the individual events.

There shall be a direct final.

The Mixed Team Diving Event involves two (2) competitors, one (1) male and one (1) female

The competition shall comprise six (6) dives. Three (3) dives shall be executed from the 3m springboard, the other three (3) dives from the 10m platform.

Three (3) dives shall be executed by the female diver, the other three (3) dives by the male diver. Each diver must perform at least one (1) dive from the springboard and one (1) dive from the platform.

The six (6) dives must be selected from six (6) different groups. Two (2) dives with an assigned degree of difficulty of 2.0 for each dive regardless of the formula and four (4) dives without limit of degree of difficulty.

The two (2) dives with limit may be executed at any time and from any height by each team member, one by the male and one by the female diver.

The teams will dive according to the following procedure a) there will be three rounds of dives b) each team will perform two dives in each round, one by the male and one by the female and c) in each round the order of male or female diver within each team is optional.

The selection from individual events shall be decided by the TDC before forming the teams.

The number of teams shall be determined by the total number of divers in the shorter of the two chosen events.

7. Competition Rules & Procedures

The Nanjing YOG Diving competition will be held in accordance with the rules of the Federation Internationale de Natation (FINA) Handbook 2013–2017 and the Olympic Charter which is in force at the time of the competition.

Pursuant to the Olympic Charter, FINA assumes the responsibility for the technical control and direction of its sport at the Youth Olympic Games.

The Technical Officials for the competitions will be the FINA Bureau (Jury of Appeal), the FINA Technical Diving Committee and judges from FINA affiliated federations. A commission shall be appointed consisting of the Bureau Liaison, the Chairman, the Vice Chairman and Honorary Secretary of the FINA Technical Diving Committee .

7.1 Tie–Break Rules

All divers who tie for an advancing position will advance to the next phase.

7.2 Penalties/Disqualification Rules

The penalties and disqualification procedures are sanctioned by the FINA rules and IOC practice.

7.3 Protests/Appeals

Protests are possible and shall be resolved under FINA rules GR 9.2.2 and GR 9.2.3. Protests must be submitted to the Jury of Appeal (Commission) in writing by the Team Leader, with a deposit of USD 100 or its equivalent in CNY which will be returned if the protest is considered to be justified.

7.4 Judging

For each competition, seven judges shall be assigned. After each dive, the judges award marks for each dive from zero to ten in half point increments. The two highest and two lowest judges scores are not considered in the calculation of a dive score (Rule D7.5 and D7.7). The remaining three judges' scores are added and multiplied by a degree of difficulty (DD).

8. Equipment & Clothing

Equipment used or clothing worn by athletes and other participants at the Youth Olympic Games Diving Competition must comply with the FINA Constitution and Technical Rules and with the Bye-Law to Rule 50 of the Olympic Charter.

9. Doping Control

The Nanjing 2014 Anti-doping team will plan and implement the YOG Doping Control Programme in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code, IOC Anti-Doping Rules and other related international standards.

The Doping Control Programme will specify the anti-doping activities to be conducted during the Games-time, including notification procedures, sample collection, storage and transport to the laboratory of China Anti-Doping Agency accredited by WADA.

The Programme is aimed at maintaining the dignity of the Olympic Movement and protecting athletes' fundamental right to participate in clean sports, so as to promote the health, justice and equality of athletes in sports events.

The test biological specimens, including urine and blood samples, will be collected from selected athletes from the date of YOV official opening to the date of the Closing Ceremony of Nanjing 2014 (12 August to 28 August 2014). All samples will be sent to the laboratory of China Anti-Doping Agency for analysis.
